

Hi. I'm Hal, the Sprinkle Inventory Specialist. I'm really busy today so I'd sure appreciate it if you could help me out and give Arnie some new sprinkles. He thinks he has a MILLION but he only has 135. See my chart for the specific colors (he's very particular about his sprinkles, you know!). Oh, and don't forget to include his eyebrows in the count. THANKS -- I owe you one!
